

MEET OUR NEW ADMINISTRATORS

SEAN MCNICHOLS - OLHMS PRINCIPAL

Hello! My name is Sean McNichols and I am honored to serve our community as the new Principal of Oak Lawn-Hometown Middle School! I am delighted to be part of this passionate, positive and hard-working team.

My personal and professional mission is to illuminate one's confidence to accelerate and maximize their potential. I believe this desire is consistent with the D123 vision and mission along with our school motto that states "Create a dream and make it a reality." My aspiration will be to support this daily.

I am looking forward to proactively supporting the positive progress of OLHMS as the hub of the community through a peaceful year of growth and reflection for our scholars and staff as we advocate to prepare today's learners for tomorrow's world.

DON HANTSON - OLHMS ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Hi! My name is Don Hantson and I am a former D123 resident and parent, who has 14 year of experience as a teacher, coach, dean, and assistant principal at the middle school and high school levels. Most recently I spent the past two years as an assistant principal at Unity Junior High in Cicero.

I hold a Bachelor's of Science in Education from Eastern Illinois University and a Master's of Educational Administration from St. Xavier University. I am also a doctoral candidate at Aurora University. In my free time I cherish time spent with my wife and children.

I am excited to start the new year as an assistant principal at OLHMS and work collaboratively with the students, staff, and community to create a dream and make it a reality.

CHRISTINE FULLER - SUPERVISOR FOR EARLY LEARNING

Hello! I am Christine Fuller, the new Supervisor for Early Learning in District 123. I am an educator with 19 years of experience.

Most recently I served as Pupil Personnel Service Coordinator for Cook County School District 130. I know my experience with, and passion for pre-kindergarten and early childhood programming will be an asset to Oak Lawn-Hometown District 123.

I am looking forward to meeting everyone in the Oak Lawn-Hometown community this year and collaboratively working together.
